316 Street Naming Proposal - Windsor Road, Knuzden Brook

The Chief Planning and Transportation Officer submitted a report to seek approval for the naming of the following street for a new-build residential development located off Windsor Road, Knuzden Brook.

The street name proposed was: Cabin End Court.

The development is for 4 semi-detached properties and 16 residential apartments. The suggested street name reflects the history of the development site of the former Cabin End Public House.

Councillor Marlene Haworth commented that she was very happy with the suggested street name and that it retains the history of the former local public house.

Resolved – That the Street name Cabin End Court were agreed.
